

Agricultural Leadership/Communication

This course is designed to strengthen students' personal and group leadership skills. Topics such as public speaking, effective communication, human relations, parliamentary law, and group dynamics are covered. Also covered is the development of Programs of Activity, and Service Learning projects, including student development, chapter development, and community development. There is a $10 fee.
Prerequisite. Successful completion of Introduction to Agriculture, and must be a member of FFA.

Course ID# = AGLDSHP-GN-Y

(This course meets the required Career Cluster, Workplace Readiness, or Language other than English Graduation Credit Requirement)