

AP Computer Science A (Java)

This challenging course emphasizes coding and problem-solving using the Java programming language. Projects in this class will include graphics, multimedia computation, computer modelling, and more. This rigorous and engaging course is intended to prepare students for the Advanced Placement Exam in this subject and will follow College Board Guidelines. No previous programming experience is necessary. Prerequisite. Algebra I. Recommended. Algebra II.

Course ID# = APCOMPSC-AP-Y

(This course meets 1 of 12 needed Elective Graduation Credit Requirements)