

AP European History

This course examines European civilization from the High Renaissance period to the recent past. Students will develop an understanding of some of the principle themes in modern European history. This course will enhance students' ability to analyze historical evidence, and the ability to express historical understanding and analysis in writing. This course requires intensive reading including but not limited to primary and secondary sources, novels, texts and articles. This course satisfies the World History credit. This course is intended to prepare students for the Advanced Placement Exam. Pre AP English I and Pre AP English II are strongly encouraged.

Course ID# = APEURO-AP-Y

(This course meets the required World History Graduation Credit Requirement)