

AP U.S. Government & Politics

AP United States Government and Politics is an intensive study of the formal and informal structure of government and the processes of the American political system. The student will examine the institutions, participants and the processes, which characterize political activity in the United States. Upon completion of this course, the student will have gained an intellectual foundation for observing, analyzing and understanding national politics. This course requires intensive reading including but not limited to primary and secondary sources, novels, texts and articles. This course is designed to prepare the student for the optional AP Exam.

Course ID# = APGEPH-AP-Y

(This course meets the required Government Graduation Credit Requirement)