

AP Language (Grade 11)

This class is the third in the Honors English sequence. This is a rigorous course designed for students with exceptional abilities in language arts. This course is designed to parallel college level English courses, AP English Language and Composition courses expose students to prose written in a variety of periods, disciplines, and rhetorical contexts. Emphasis is placed on the interaction of authorial purpose, intended audience, and the subject at hand; students learn to develop stylistic flexibility as they write compositions covering a variety of subjects and intended for various purposes. This course is intended to prepare students for the optional Advanced Placement Exam in this subject and should follow the published College Board guidelines. Students are expected to complete summer reading assignments prior to the first day of class. Assignment instructions may be obtained from Pre AP English teachers in May or from the main administrative office during the summer. Those students new to the district will be given guidelines for summer reading make-up by instructor when course starts in the fall semester
