

AP U.S. History

The AP American History course is designed to give students a wide survey of the subject matter of American national development. U.S. History deals with the social, political, economic and cultural development of the United States from its inception, to the Civil War and Reconstruction, and further from the 1870s through its growth and role as a world power in the 21st century. The course is equivalent of a full year introductory college course in American History. This course requires intensive reading including but not limited to primary and secondary sources, novels, texts and articles. It is designed to prepare the student for the optional Advanced Placement Exam.

Course ID# = APUSHST-AP-Y

(This course meets the required American History Graduation Credit Requirement)