

Child Development

Students will study relationships, dating, human sexuality, pregnancy and birth. Emphasis is placed on decision making skills, responsibilities of parenthood, and all aspects of child development from conception to pre-school age. The course curriculum may contain material related to human sexuality, reproduction and sexually transmitted diseases. Course Fee $5.00

Course ID# = CHILDDEV-GN-Y

(This course meets the required Career Cluster, Workplace Readiness, or Language other than English Graduation Credit Requirement)