

Drafting- Technical/Mechanical

This entry-level course presents the fundamentals necessary to read, interpret, and make technical drawings. The course is highly recommended for the students considering drafting-related careers in architecture, engineering or technical fields. Included is an introduction to computer aided drafting. Students can earn Dual Credit (DRFT 108) from DACC with a grade of B or better in the course. Cost to Student. $25.00 per semester

Course ID# = DRFTMC-GN-Y

(This course meets the required Career Cluster, Workplace Readiness, or Language other than English Graduation Credit Requirement)