

Introduction to Theater

This course includes reading plays, acting exercises, critical analysis, live performances, and an introduction to other theatrical fields such as design, writing, and technical theatre. Students will be required to perform several times throughout the semester. Attendance at local play performances is required. This class is for first time theater students only. Prerequisite: No previous theater or acting experience necessary

Course ID# = INTROTH-GN-Y

(This course meets 1 of 12 needed Elective Graduation Credit Requirements)