

Sports Medicine 1

This course is designed for students who have an interest in a medical profession such as an athletic trainer, emergency medical technician, nurse, physical therapist, radiologist and physician. The course will cover topics dealing with anatomy, physiology, first aid, ambulation, protective taping, injury prevention, injury recognition, injury management and treatment, legal implications in sports medicine. The course will also cover the use of therapeutic modalities, exercise rehabilitation, protective equipment, and nutritional considerations related to athletics. Course Fee $20.00

Prerequisite. Biology

Course ID# = SPMDCT1-GN-Y

(This course meets the required Career Cluster, Workplace Readiness, or Language other than English Graduation Credit Requirement)