

Veterinary Science

Course imparts basic information about employment as a veterinary technician. Animal health, nutrition, reproduction, genetics, facilities maintenance, anatomy and physiology and business management are all possible areas of study. Specific focus of this course is on mastering the entry level skills needed for employment as a vet assistant or technician and obtaining certification as a CVA. There is a $15 fee. Prerequisite, Successful completion of Small Animal Science.

Course ID #- VETSCI-GN-Y

(This course meets 1 of 12 needed Elective Graduation Credit Requirements)