

World History/Geography

World History examines the economic, political, social, and cultural similarities and differences among the major civilizations of the world. Major focus begins with the Renaissance and Scientific Revolution (approximately 1500 AD). This course includes the study of literature, art, music, philosophy of various world cultures and their contributions. This course carries the study of world history to the present day.

Course ID# = WRLDHST-GN-Y

Special Education Inclusion Course ID# = WRLDHST-SI-Y

Special Education Self Contained Course ID# = WRLDHST-SS-Y

(This course meets the required World History Graduation Credit Requirement)